

March 6, 2026

Welcoming New and Returning Leaders Supporting Your Student Association

Hey, Centennial! We're excited to introduce some of the people helping lead the work of the CCSAI. This group includes both returning and newly appointed leaders, bringing together experience, fresh perspectives, and a shared commitment to supporting students across Centennial's campuses.

Christina Farow | Executive Director

Meet Christina Farow (née Alcena), CCSAI's Executive Director. Christina brings extensive experience working in post-secondary education and non-profit organizations, and is a strong champion of student and employee success with a commitment to decolonization, equity, diversity, and inclusion.

Most recently, she served as Director of Academic Advising and Career Services at Niagara College's Welland Campus. She has also held leadership roles at Sheridan College as the inaugural Director, Division of Students, and at Humber Polytechnic as Associate Director of Advising and Career Services and inaugural Manager of Equity and Student Life. Christina has also taught within the Faculty of Liberal Arts & Sciences and previously gained student government experience through roles at the University of Toronto and the University of Windsor.

Originally from Windsor with Chinese and Bahamian heritage, Christina holds a BA (Hons) in Communication, Media & Film, an MEd in Curriculum, Teaching and Learning (Arts in Education Emphasis), and a Certificate in Student Affairs and Services.

Olamipo Ogunnote | Manager, Research & Advocacy

Meet Olamipo Ogunnote, CCSAI's Manager, Research & Advocacy. Olami leads the organization's research and advocacy agenda, advancing policy priorities on behalf of students across Centennial College.

Previously, he served as Director of Advocacy & Strategic Partnerships at Ontario Student Voices, where he helped build a provincial advocacy organization representing more than 160,000 students and led over 200 meetings with policymakers. His work has been featured in outlets including The Globe and Mail and the Toronto Star, contributing to provincial conversations on post-secondary funding and workforce development.

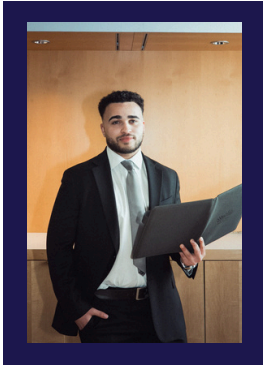

Olamipo holds an Advanced College Diploma in Aviation and a Commercial Pilot License, as well as a Certificate in Public Policy Analysis from the London School of Economics and Political Science and is completing a Postgraduate Certificate in Public Relations and Corporate Communications at Seneca Polytechnic.

Ajané Adams | Chief Governance Relations Officer

Meet Ajané "AJ" Adams, CCSAI's Chief Governance Relations Officer. AJ previously served as CCSAI President from 2023 to 2025, where he led a comprehensive governance reform, modernized the organization's bylaws in alignment with ONCA, rebuilt policy frameworks, and helped spearhead CCSAI's multi-year Strategic Plan.

He holds a Bachelor of Professional Arts in Governance, Law and Management, is a licensed Paralegal and Notary Public in Ontario, and holds the Governance Professionals of Canada designation (GPC.D). AJ also completed a Certificate of Specialization in Leadership and Management from Harvard Business School. Through his work, he is passionate about building strong governance systems that serve students today and for years to come.

Logan Routhier | CCSAI President (2026-2027)

Logan Routhier will continue serving students as CCSAI President for the 2026–2027 academic year. An advocate at heart, Logan is passionate about representation, equity, and ensuring that student voices are heard at every level.

Logan joined CCSAI in March 2024 and holds a college degree in Social Sciences along with a Becoming an Inclusive Leader Certificate. Through his work with the Canadian Alliance of Student Associations (CASA) as Director of Advocacy, he helped lead the nationwide advocacy awareness initiative CASA on the Road. After participating in multiple national and provincial advocacy weeks with meetings with parliamentarians and helping facilitate new initiatives, Logan remains committed to making the college experience better for students across Centennial.

Fadl Ghazi Almushattat | Vice President - Internal (2026–2027)

Meet Fadl Ghazi Almushattat, CCSAI's Vice President - Internal for the 2026–2027 academic year. Fadl previously served as Vice President of the Morningside Campus for the 2025–2026 year and has been actively involved in strengthening student engagement and representation.

Fadl began his journey in Canada as an international student in Fall 2022 at just 18 years old. He is currently pursuing his diploma in the Occupational Therapist Assistant and Physiotherapist Assistant program and hopes to become a licensed physiotherapist in Canada in the future.

He is passionate about strengthening CCSAI engagement, supporting student success, and ensuring student voices are empowered across campus. Outside of his leadership work, Fadl is a car enthusiast and watch nerd who enjoys spending time in nature to recharge.