WELCOME TO THE TEAM!

WAASIMAH JOOMUN
Governance Associate

Wasiimah Joomun is the Governance Associate at the Centennial College Student Association Inc. (CCSAI), where she supports the Board of Directors and organizational leadership in strengthening governance practices, advancing policy development, and promoting accountability and transparency.

Wasiimah brings extensive experience in student advocacy, organizational leadership, and board governance. Before joining CCSAI, she served as Executive Director of the Canadian Alliance of Student Associations (CASA), where she worked with student associations across Canada to advance federal post-secondary education priorities. She previously served as Executive Director of the New Brunswick Student Alliance and held various student leadership roles throughout her academic career.

Wasiimah holds a Bachelor of Arts from St. Thomas University, with Honours in Criminology and Criminal Justice and a major in Psychology. She is currently pursuing a Master of Arts in Criminal Justice and Public Policy at the University of Guelph, with research interests at the intersection of psychology, criminal justice, and evidence-informed public policy.

Passionate about student representation, effective governance, and institutional accountability, Wasiimah is committed to helping build transparent, inclusive, and student-centred decision-making processes.
